□ 1252

Mr. MARKEY changed his vote from "yea" to "nay."

Messrs. BARRETT of Wisconsin, DELAHUNT and TIERNEY changed their vote from "nay" to "yea."

So the conference report was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I was unfortunately delayed away from the Capitol during the vote on the Defense Authorization legislation, H.R. 4205. However, had I been here, I would have voted "yea."

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SPENCE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 4265.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. COOKSEY). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

There was no objection.

ENERGY AND WATER REDEVELOPMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2001—VETO MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the further consideration of the veto message of the President of the United States on the bill (H.R. 4733) making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2001, and for other purposes.

The question is, Will the House, on reconsideration, pass the bill, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding?

(For veto message, see proceedings of the House of October 10, 2000, at page H9575).

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from California (Mr. PACKARD) is recognized for 1 hour.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and that I may include tabular and extraneous material on the veto message of the President of the United States to the bill, H.R. 4733.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LATOURETTE). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. PACKARD. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I yield the customary 30 minutes to the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. VISCLOSKEY) for purposes of debate only.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to urge my colleagues in the strongest possible terms to override the President's unfortunate veto of the Fiscal Year 2001 Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act.

Of all the appropriations bills, this is one of the most bipartisan. The conference agreement that we presented to the House 2 weeks ago is fair and balanced.

Through the programs of the Corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation, we have provided funds to maintain and rebuild our critical water resources infrastructure and protect millions of citizens who are currently vulnerable to the devastating effects of floods.

Funds that we have provided through this bill for the Department of Energy will help to strengthen our national defense, increase our scientific knowledge, and help us to become more energy independent.

In spite of all the good things in this bill, the President has legislated to veto it over a single provision included
